The "Unfamiliar" Passages

Have you ever noticed how often messages start with "we're going to a very familiar passage today"? This week study "unfamiliar" passages, books and chapters of the Bible that you have NEVER read on your own or are less familiar with. Feel free to use the 30 minutes you're in your word each day. Write what you learned.

Possible places to start (which are often "unfamiliar"): Leviticus, Numbers, Ezra, Nehemiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Amos, Obadiah, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Colossians, 1 or 2 Thessalonians, Titus, Philemon, Jude, Revelations
